

Eat Walk Meditate: Care for the Caregiver

The Spirit of Italy

With host, Brian Luke Seaward, Ph.D.

September 21-30, 2012

Tour Theme: Italy is the culture dreams are made of; great food, stunning pastoral scenery, and a relaxed healthy lifestyle. These are the reasons why we have chosen the Tuscan region of Italy and Venice as our prime locations for a retreat for caregivers and working professionals; a time to renew mind, body and spirit. This tour theme (loosely based on Liz Gilbert's best-selling book, Eat Pray Love) offers guided meditations, wonderful Italian meals, stress & personal management skills, and an unforgettable taste of the authentic Italian culture honoring the skills of self-care for nurses, caretakers and professionals on the frontlines of the healthcare industry.

Tour Host: Brian Luke Seaward has conducted hundreds of professional development and personal growth workshops and seminar retreats including hosting several group tours abroad. Our 2011 tour to Tuscany was sublime. Dr. Seaward is recognized internationally for his work in the fields of holistic stress management and mind-body-spirit healing. He is also the best selling author of many books including Stand Like Mountain, Flow Like Water, Stressed is Desserts Spelled Backward and The Art of Calm. Dr. Seaward will lead morning meditations and facilitate the stress management classes throughout the trip.

Italian Tour Guides: Our local guides for this healing expedition are nothing less than excellent. Well versed in the language, history, culture, spirituality and music, Gail Hecko (and her team) will extend the best Italian hospitality and wisdom of the Tuscany region and the city of Venice. They specialize in the "unique and authentic Italian experience," and boy do they deliver!!!

Who Should Come? Any and all people in the allied health professions looking to relax and replenish their human spirit, specifically those who wish to travel with like-minded companions and caregivers. Our tour guide team is one of the best in Italy and they know exactly how to create the magical alchemy we desire for a most memorable experience. You don't have to be of Italian heritage to enjoy this trip, but those who claim Italian ancestry will be smiling for years to come. Space is limited to 14 people.

Comments from 2011 Tour Participants

• Dear Luke, Just a note to say thanks for making the trip to Italy so exciting. A very special thanks. I had been to Tuscany before, but this time, I came to be in the company of like-minded people, whom you attract on your trips/workshops. Eat Walk Meditate was exceptional.

Thanks again— Christine L. RN,BSN, HN-BC, PCC, New Orleans, LA

• Hello everyone, I've shown several people my pictures of the trip. When I showed a picture of our group to a few girlfriends this weekend, they asked me "were they nice; did you get along?" I wanted to tell them that I spent a week with a group of people who helped my soul. For the first time in a long time, I had people look at me, touch my arm and ask "are you OK?" I wanted to tell them that each person was a unique individual that I could sit down with at any time and have a wonderful conversation.

I wanted to say that I would miss everyone terribly. But what I said was "yes, they were nice".

Suddenly, I felt that although my visit to the country of Italy was something that I can and will share in detail with everyone, I felt that my fabulous experience with the people in my group was a magical, special and private. You can take a beautiful picture of Italy, but you can't take a picture of what we had as a group.

Anyone can have a great trip to Italy because...well, it's Italy. I feel very blessed to have had a great trip to Italy along with the greatest experience possible, because of all of you. Take care, Cindy

• Luke, What a trip! If Ireland was a spiritual journey, then Italy was a time of EnLIGHTENment. Lit up people, lit up brilliant landscape, radiant traveling companions, to say nothing of the brainy and funny guides we had. What a respite to be with people who really are not afraid to CONNECT. I guess this is what you attract with your own sparkle, intellect and light. Paul and I had a great time every day. Some really good changes are taking place too with him reminding ME to "Stay in the present". It is great. And he is happy to have organic food now too and understands why this is so important for our health. Anyone would benefit from time this well spent. Also, with all the breakfasts included as well as three incredible dinners (and we have had some incredible meals in our day), the trains and vans and tour guides, and your classes every morning, it was more than worth it. It is a little bit painful to know that it will be a long time- if ever- till we see our group and you and the gorgeous landscape of Tuscany again, really longing, but we are so happy to have had this time with all of the group and each other and you .
Peace and love, Francine

"I can't stop talking about how amazing this group was. Remember, I've been doing this for 10 years, and this was one of the best groups ever, if not THE best. I think so much of the success of the week had to do with Luke's guidance right from the beginning. He set healthy boundaries from the first moment, and everyone followed them. I am going to follow his example with other groups. I'm still wearing my Friendship bracelet. I can't get it off by myself and I keep "forgetting" to ask Roberto for help....I think I like the reminder of the trip.
Love to you all, Gail Hecko

Why go on a guided trip? Until recently, rarely did I go on guided trips. Usually, it's just me and my camera(s) and often a photography buddy. I never realized how much I was missing by having someone who knows the region, the history, the politics, the spirituality; you name it (not to mention having somebody else doing the driving!!!). What is equally enchanting is to be in the company of so many like-minded souls on a mission who become lifelong friends (not to be confused with Facebook buddies). This promises to be a trip of a lifetime, with enchanted memories that will linger in the heart forever! We hope you can join us in Italy!
